

SUMMARY

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Preface.....	v
Detailed Table of Contents.....	ix
How To Use This Book.....	xvii
Introduction.....	xix
Chapter One: Six Exam Tasks, Six Grading Criteria.....	1
Chapter Two: Mastery Learning of Law for Exams and Practice.....	7
Chapter Three: Outlining Your Courses For Exams.....	29
Chapter Four: Spotting Issues on Law Essay Exams.....	43
Chapter Five: Outlining and Writing Lawyerly Exam Arguments.....	77
Chapter Six: Sample Exam Problems.....	111
Chapter Seven: Sample Exam Arguments.....	117
Chapter Eight: Avoiding Common Pitfalls.....	149
Appendix A: Fourth Amendment Search & Seizure Outline.....	153
Appendix B: “HATRI” Practice.....	156
Appendix C: Exam Checklists.....	161
Appendix D: Basic exercises.....	163
Appendix E: Other Books by Professor John Delaney and Individualized Exam Coaching from Professor Delaney.....	165

DETAILED TABLE OF CONTENTS

Preface.....	V
Summary Table of Contents.....	viii
How to use this book.....	xvii
If you have not yet started law school.....	xvii
If you are already in law school.....	xvii

INTRODUCTION

The need for this book is founded on three realities.....	xix
The good news.....	xix
Failure of law schools to prepare students for exams.....	xx
Mystification.....	xx
Integrated and systematic approach.....	xx
Law as advocacy argument.....	xxi
On looking back.....	xxii

CHAPTER ONE — SIX EXAM TASKS, SIX GRADING CRITERIA

Six objectives of this book.....	1
Concretely, what is the challenge in answering law-school exam problems?.....	2
Six exam tasks.....	2
The centrality of spotting the issues.....	3
Six criteria for grading exams.....	4
You are graded on how well you perform your six exam tasks by the corresponding six criteria.....	4
Grade differences result mostly from differences in skills.....	4
Improvement possibilities — So what do I do?.....	5
On looking back.....	5

CHAPTER TWO — MASTERY LEARNING OF LAW FOR EXAMS AND PRACTICE

Introduction.....	7
Cultivate a positive attitude towards all your learning.....	8
Practice active versus passive learning.....	9
Learning strategies.....	9
Basement-up.....	10
Top-down.....	10
Other learning strategies.....	11
Learning methods and techniques: From theory to practice.....	11
Acquisition of knowledge via skills-centered understanding.....	11
Legal mind-set: Problem-centered and fact-centered.....	11
Applying problem-centered and fact-centered approach.....	11
Identifying your professor's teaching strategy.....	12
Dialing into your professor's substantive frequency.....	13
Dialing into your professor's analytical frequency (her patterned frequencies).....	14
Tort negligence pattern.....	15

Intentional tort pattern.....	15
Core crime pattern.....	16
Constitutional criminal procedure—Fourth Amendment search and seizure pattern.....	16
Contract pattern.....	17
Learning rules with legal and factual diagramming.....	17
Legal diagramming.....	17
Factual diagramming.....	18
Learning rules with iconic examples (pictures).....	19
Intentional tort examples.....	20
Rule: Battery.....	20
Rule: Assault.....	20
Criminal Law examples.....	21
Rule: Intentional murder.....	21
Rule: Depraved-heart murder.....	21
Advantages and risks of learning rules with iconic and other examples.....	22
Advantages.....	22
Risks.....	22
Anticipating exam issues.....	23
Verifying via old exams.....	23
Practice by writing.....	24
See red-hot facts as lightning rods for issue-spotting.....	24
Miscellaneous points about preparation.....	25
Memorization.....	25
Legal language.....	25
Study groups.....	26
Warming up.....	27
Summary of recommendations.....	27
Conclusion.....	28
On looking back.....	28

CHAPTER THREE — OUTLINING YOUR COURSES FOR EXAMS

Introduction.....	29
First recommended approach: Outlining with rules and examples.....	31
From learning to outlining.....	31
Sequencing of your index cards.....	32
A disadvantage and a remedy.....	33
Second recommended approach: A more traditional outlining.....	34
Topics and subtopics.....	34
Key questions.....	34
Review sample outline in Appendix A.....	34
Self-discipline.....	34
Using the table of contents and hornbooks.....	35
Using your assigned cases.....	35
At the end.....	35
Refining your initial outlining effort.....	36
Check for interweaving threads.....	36
A third recommended approach: Summaries of your outlines.....	37
Negligent tort pattern summary.....	37

Step I: Duty .....	37
Step II: Determining the applicable standard of care .....	37
Step III: Breach of duty.....	37
Step IV: Cause in fact (actual cause).....	38
Step V: Proximate (legal) cause .....	38
Step VI: Damage or harm .....	38
Step VII: Possible defenses.....	38
Contributory negligence.....	38
Comparative negligence .....	38
Assumption of risk.....	38
Statutory immunity.....	38
Core Crimes Pattern Summary .....	38
Step I: Voluntary Act ( actus reus ).....	38
Step II: Mens rea .....	39
Step III: Concurrence: .....	39
Steps IV and V: Causation and harm .....	39
Step VI: Defenses.....	40
Incapacity .....	40
Justification .....	40
Excuse.....	40
Danger in the last two outlining approaches.....	41
Talk yourself through the course .....	41
Verifying the utility of your outlining and threading .....	41
Summary of outlining approaches .....	42
On looking back.....	42

CHAPTER FOUR — SPOTTING ISSUES ON LAW SCHOOL EXAMS

Introduction.....	43
What is a legal issue?.....	44
Examples of lawyerly and unlaywerly spotting and specifying of issues.....	45
Three primary issue-spotting methods for decoding law essay exams.....	46
First Issue-Spotting Method.....	46
Light-bulb issue spotting: The foundational intuitive method .....	46
Step One: Concentrating on the question at the end of the fact pattern.....	47
Step Two: Quickly scanning the problem to identify its type.....	47
Step Three: Spotlighting the legal conflicts by identifying the parties in conflict.....	49
Steps Four and Five: Initially complete each legal conflict by just adding the act and the legal harm.....	49
Application of the five steps to light-bulb issue-spotting .....	50
A straightforward criminal-law example.....	50
A somewhat more challenging tort example.....	50
A straightforward contract example.....	51
Second Issue-Spotting Method .....	52
Your Exam Checklist .....	52
Third Issue-Spotting Method.....	53
The HATRI safety net.....	53
If you are having a bad exam day – HATRI to the rescue .....	53
The HATRI process .....	53

Type I Problem —From decoding short hypotheticals to decoding multi-issue problems .....	54
Problem — Old Friends at Work and Play .....	55
The first and second issue-spotting steps.....	55
The third issue-spotting step.....	56
The fourth issue-spotting step .....	56
The culminating fifth issue-spotting step .....	56
Old Friends at Work and Play —A challenging Type I problem? .....	57
Applying the check-the-checklist approach .....	58
Remaining issues in Old Friends at Work and Play.....	59
Another Type I Problem — The shorter and less intricate multi-issue exam problems .....	61
Problem —The Rampage of the Hothead.....	61
Extracting the surface legal conflicts in the first paragraph .....	61
As you know: always confirm with your checklist.....	62
Spotting these four issues: a blend of methods.....	63
Recapitulating the five issue-spotting steps for Type I multi-issue problem.....	63
Type II Problem: Unfolding an ultimate issue into intermediate issues .....	64
A contract example of a Type II Problem .....	64
Type III Exam Problem: Unpacking the policy issue.....	65
Type IV Problem: Aberrations.....	66
Beyond the types of problems: Secondary or sub-issues .....	66
Help in spotting issues from the interrogatories .....	67
Red-hot facts and other givens .....	67
More on red-hot facts, legal relationships, and conclusions of law.....	68
Red-hot facts.....	68
Legal relationships .....	68
Conclusions of law as givens.....	68
Other issue-spotting insights .....	69
So-called “hidden” issues as distracters.....	69
Claims and counterclaims or defenses.....	69
The jurisprudence of spotting issues .....	70
Constitutional and other frame shifting .....	72
The adversarial character of spotting and arguing issues: Notes from practice .....	74
Recapitulation of primary issue-spotting methods for law essay exams .....	75
Conclusion.....	75
On looking back.....	75

CHAPTER FIVE — OUTLINING AND WRITING LAWYERLY EXAM ARGUMENTS

Introduction.....	77
Six Grading Criteria .....	77
Outlining your argument: An introduction .....	78
CIRI(P) Writing Formats: Format One.....	78
What should be outlined here before writing? .....	80
Test yourself .....	80
A tort example of the CIRI(P) One writing format .....	81
A poor answer to the intentional tort of battery question.....	81
A contract example of CIRI(P) One.....	82
How much outlining do you need for the last two arguments?.....	82
Diagnosis and correction.....	82

CIRI(P) One(a) Writing Format: A shorter version of CIRI(P) One.....	83
Common blunders in exam arguments.....	83
No interweaving.....	83
Inadequate interweaving.....	84
Faulty rule statement.....	85
An expository answer to be avoided.....	85
Why this expository answer is wrong.....	85
CIRI(P) Two writing format: The two-rule format.....	87
Illustration of two-rule format.....	88
Strong Argument applying CIRI(P) Two writing format.....	88
A poor example of a two-rule answer.....	89
Another example of the two-rule format.....	89
Format Two (a): “It might be argued...”.....	90
An illustration of Format Two (a) variation.....	91
Strong argument applying CIRI(P) Format Two(a).....	91
How much outlining do you need for these CIRI(P) Two arguments?.....	92
CIRI(P) Format Three: More complex rule statements.....	93
An initial tort example of more complex rule statements.....	93
Example of omission of previously specified rule.....	95
Additional rules.....	95
A tort example of an elaborating rule.....	96
A final tort example of an additional rule.....	96
How much outlining do you need for these CIRI(P) Three arguments?.....	97
CIRI(P) Three(a): Elastic standards, and tests or factors.....	97
Elastic standards.....	97
Tests.....	97
An intentional tort example of CIRI(P) Three(a).....	97
How much outlining do you need for these CIRI(P) Three(a) argument?.....	99
A civil procedure example of CIRI(P) Three(a).....	99
A contract example of CIRI(P) Three(a).....	100
How much outlining do you need for these latter two arguments?.....	100
Caveats for all CIRI(P) Three Formats so far.....	101
CIRI(P) Three (b): the multi-step approach.....	101
A very strong argument applying CIRI(P) Three(b).....	102
How much outlining do you need for this argument?.....	102
CIRI(P) Four: Invalidating the Rule.....	102
A straightforward example from juvenile delinquency (family) law.....	103
A strong exam argument applying CIRI(P) Format Four.....	103
An example from criminal law sentencing.....	104
Another strong argument applying CIRI(P) Format Four.....	104
How much outlining do you need for the Constitutional arguments?.....	105
Applying the formats in battle conditions.....	105
Arguing the policy problem: A quite different legal architecture.....	106
Summary of CIRI(P) Writing Formats.....	107
Conclusion.....	107
On looking back.....	108

CHAPTER SIX — SAMPLE EXAM PROBLEMS

Mary Lee .....	111
The Speluncean Explorers .....	112
Policy Problem.....	113
Olivia Warbucks .....	114
Prince Iple .....	115
Blowing in the Wind.....	115
Let Them Eat Cake.....	116

CHAPTER SEVEN — SAMPLE EXAM ARGUMENTS

Introduction .....	117
Mary Lee .....	118
After Quick Reading: Mary Lee .....	118
Applying the five issue-spotting steps.....	119
If your light-bulb issue spotting is really strong .....	120
After Second Meticulous Reading: Mary Lee .....	120
From issue spotting to brief outlining of your argument.....	121
Exam Outline for Writing Argument.....	121
Voilà! The ‘A’ Argument to Mary Lee .....	122
Additional comments .....	125
A very poor Argument to Mary Lee.....	125
Additional comments .....	126
The Speluncean Explorers.....	127
A student’s ‘A’ Argument to The Speluncean Explorers.....	127
Additional comments.....	129
A second student’s ‘A’ Argument to The Speluncean Explorers .....	129
Additional comments .....	132
Mediocre to poor argument to The Speluncean Explorers .....	133
Additional comments .....	135
Policy Problem .....	135
A student’s ‘A’ argument to the Policy Problem.....	135
A mediocre to poor argument to the Policy Problem .....	136
Olivia Warbucks .....	138
An ‘A’ argument to Olivia Warbucks.....	138
Additional comments .....	143
Prince Iple .....	143
An ‘A’ argument to Prince Iple.....	143
Blowing in the Wind .....	144
An ‘A’ argument to Blowing in the Wind.....	144
“Let Them Eat Cake” .....	146
A student’s ‘A’ argument to “Let Them Eat Cake”.....	146
Additional Comments .....	147
On looking back.....	147
Insight from recent coaching experience.....	148

CHAPTER EIGHT: AVOIDING COMMON PITFALLS

Keep your emotional balance. Don't let resentments seize you .....	149
Keep your intellectual balance. Don't become pre-occupied with what is secondary, tangential, unclear, or evolving .....	149
Remember that the grader has a human psychology .....	150
An Important final recommendation: How to continue to practice issue spotting and writing exam arguments.....	152
Appendix A: Fourth Amendment Search & Seizure Outline .....	153
Appendix B: HATRI Practice .....	156
Appendix C: Exam Checklists .....	161
Criminal law exam checklist.....	161
Tort exam checklist.....	162
Appendix D: Practice Basic Issue-Spotting and Argument Writing Now.....	163
Appendix E: Other books by Professor Delaney and Individualized Exam Coaching from Professor Delaney.....	165

ADDITIONAL ADVICE FROM PROFESSOR DELANEY AT www.johndelaneypub.com

FAQ

Preparing for the Law School Classroom

Preparing for the Law School Exams

Articles by Professor Delaney

Suggestions for Preparing Before Law School

Suggestions for the Day of the Exam

CIRI(P) Essay Writing Formats Compared to the Reductive IRAC Formats

Essential Differences Between College and Law School Exams

A Meta-Framework for Mastery Learning of Law